The subject has been identified by HARRY GOLD, convicted Soviet espionage courier, as the individual "JOHN" to whom GOLD passed information received from Dr. KLAUS FUCHS.

The records of the US Department of State, Washington, D. C. reflect that the subject arrived in the US at San Pedro, California, on 2/4/41, listing his destination as the Soviet Consulate in NYC. He assumed his duties as a clerk at the Soviet Consulate in NYC on 2/8/41.

On 7/26/46, the subject advised the Department of Immigration and Naturalization, NYC, that he was then the Assistant Consul General or Vice Consul at the Soviet Consulate, NY.

A physical surveillance conducted on 12/27/46 by SA ROBERT J. WIRTH reflected that the subject and his family left the US on the SS America on that date.

Declassify on: OADR 4/1/87

On 8/17/50 a Federal Grand Jury in the SDNY returned an indictment charging the subject and others with conspiracy to violate Section 32, Title 50, USC, in that they had conspired to furnish information pertaining to the national defense of the US to a foreign nation; namely, the USSR. On 8/23/50, a bench warrant was issued for the subject by Federal Judge T. HOYT DAVIS of the SDNY. A superseding indictment was returned by a Federal Grand Jury of the SDNY on 1/31/51, charging the subject and others with a conspiracy to commit espionage. The other defendants, with the exception of the subject, were brought to trial on 3/6/51 and were found guilty.

and ANATOLI H. YAKOVLEV, also known as "John", charging them with a violation of Title 50, Section 34 of the United States Code, in that they had conspired to violate the espionage laws by obtaining information relating to the national defense of the United States.

On August 23, 1950, a bench warrant was ordered by United States Judge T. HOYT DAVIS for the subject's arrest, and this warrant was issued on August 24, 1950. Criminal numbers C133-293 reflected that an indictment was filed on October 10, 1950, charging JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV, also known as "John", DAVID GREENGLASS and MORTON SOBELL, with a violation of Title 50, Section 34, United States Code, in that they had conspired to communicate, deliver, and transmit to a foreign government, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republic, documents, writings, etcetera, relating to the national defense of the United States. On the basis of this indictment United States Judge WILLIAM BONDY, ordered a bench warrant for the subject's arrest on October 16, 1950, and this warrant was issued on the same date. Criminal number C 133-245 reflected that a superseding indictment was filed on January 31, 1951 against JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG, ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV, also known as "John", DAVID GREENGLASS, and MORTON SOBELL, charging them with a violation of Title 50, Section 34 of the United States Code, in that they had conspired to deliver and transmit to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, documents, etc., relating to the national defense of the United States.

On March 6, 1951, defendants JULIUS ROSENBERG, ETHEL ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL were brought to trial on the basis of the above indictment and on March 29, 1951, these defendants were found to be guilty as charged.

On March 6, 1951, the trial as to the defendant ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV was severed.

On December 4, 1952, a bench warrant for the subject's arrest was ordered by United States Judge JOHN C. KNOX, and this warrant was issued on December 5, 1952.

A. GEORGE McLEAN

[REDACTED]

On September 15, 1952, Mr. KENNETH DE FOREST, 450 Forest Avenue, Rye, New York, advised SA WILLIAM A. FLYNN, JR., that he has known GEORGE McLEAN for over 25 years and that McLEAN at one time ran a hoopala game at a playland amusement park at Rye, New York. DE FOREST described McLEAN as "an apple polisher" and one who is forever attempting to ingratiate himself with influential people.

During the early 1940's McLEAN worked as a real estate salesman for Mr. DE FOREST's wife in Rye, New York, and in such capacity he occupied an apartment at the address, 450 Forest Avenue.

DE FOREST stated that when he returned from the Navy after World War II, he was advised by one JOE FERRIS that McLEAN had used a key to one of DE FOREST's bungalows and had rented the bungalow out in the evenings as a brothel. DE FOREST said that it was entirely possible that McLEAN had rented one or more of the bungalows to the subject or to the Russian Nationals, during the 1940's, as the Soviets had been coming up to Rye, New York, for a good many years.

DE FOREST described McLEAN as being totally unreliable and as being of an unscrupulous character.

B. HARRY FEIN

[REDACTED]

FEIN was interviewed on October 28, 1952, at his place of business by SA ROBERT C. BALL and SA TROY COLEMAN of the Newark Office. At that time he stated that he did not know the subject and, in fact, failed to recognize the subject's name as one he had ever heard. He did state that he had contacted the Soviet Consulate in New York City in 1944 seeking information concerning his mother who was at that time residing in Russia. He stated that an individual who could have been the subject advised him that he should contact the International Red Cross. The only other contact with the Soviet Consulate that FEIN could recall was when he received a New Years greeting card in 1945.

In 1945 after the termination of World War II, FEIN stated that he received information from a relative in Russia to the effect that his mother had died during the siege of Stalingrad. FEIN noted that he had come from a wealthy family in Odessa, Russia, was educated in Palestine, and came to the United States in 1921. He attempted to enter the USSR in 1935 for the purpose of visiting relatives but was refused entrance by the Soviet Government because he had departed from Russia during the revolution. He insisted that he had been anti-Communist during his entire life.

ESPIONAGE - R 37642

Re report of SA EDGAR C. FOREST, dated 1/6/53 at NY.

The Bureau's attention is directed to the fact that most of the information in the enclosed report was furnished by [redacted] and consideration should be given to this fact before this report is ever disseminated.

It is further noted that the real estate agent, who apparently rented a bungalow to the subject in 1944, has been identified as GEORGE McLEAN. Inasmuch as McLEAN has been described as being totally unreliable and unscrupulous, it is not being recommended that he be interviewed.

The Bureau's attention is also directed to Bureau letter dated November 28, 1952, to which was attached a 694-page correlation summary of all information concerning the subject appearing in the Bureau files. The Bureau instructed that this information should be reviewed and analyzed and all logical leads developed.

UACB this summary will be reviewed after the review of information furnished by [redacted] has been completed.

Bureau letter dated 11/28/52 also stated that where necessary prior Bureau authority to interview contacts of the subject should be obtained. By letter dated 6/6/51 the Bureau stated that no contacts of the subject should be interviewed without prior Bureau authority, and that a recommendation should be made as to all contacts of the subject. UACB authority will be requested before interviewing any of the subject's contacts.

Five copies of referenced report are herewith enclosed for the Bureau and one copy each for Los Angeles, San Francisco and Washington Field.

DATE: 3/25/53

FROM : SAC, BALTIMORE (65-1757)

SUBJECT: ANATOLI ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, Was. Fugitive
ESPIONAGE - RALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 4/1/87 BY 3042PWT/1mmwRe Cincinnati letter to Director dated 2/19/53.

The following is the result of an investigation conducted to identify L. C. ROCHE of the Maryland Glass Company, Baltimore, Maryland, who is mentioned in referenced letter.

This investigation, unless otherwise indicated, was conducted by SA CHARLES M. FLEURY.

The indices of the Baltimore Office failed to reveal any references to L. C. ROCHE.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Baltimore, Inc., as checked by SE JAMES R. COCHRAN on 3/5/53, reflected that a report dated 4/17/41 pertaining to LOUIS C. ROCHE of 301 E. Gittings Ave., reflected that this person had been employed since about 1924 by the Maryland Glass Corporation, Mount Winans, Baltimore City, as Superintendent of the plant. This report stated that ROCHE was married to RUTH ROCHE; that he was about 44-45 years of age, and that he had lived at 301 E. Gittings Ave. since about 1924, sharing the property with his wife and four children.

It stated that he was a Chemist by profession and had been formerly employed by the Emerson Drug Co. of Baltimore. The report stated that he was well regarded by those who had been consulted and contained no derogatory information.

The records of the Supervisor of Elections of Baltimore City, Gay and Fayette Streets, Baltimore, reveal that LOUIS C. ROCHE, 301 E. Gittings Ave., registered on 11/22/39, indicating that he was 43 years of age, a factory manager, native born, and that he had lived in the State for 43 years. His Party affiliation was shown as one of the two major political parties. He registered in the following years and at no time changed his political preference:

1940; 1942-1944; 1946-1948; 1950-1951.

It is to be noted that RUTH ROCHE and LOUIS C. ROCHE, JR., also 301 E. Gittings Ave., were registered to vote and that their political preference was shown as one of the two major political parties.

The records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, State of Maryland, Baltimore, as checked by SE JAMES R. COCHRAN, reveal that LOUIS C. ROCHE, 301 E. Gittings Ave., Baltimore, was issued operator's license #88241 on 9/3/37. He was described as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Height:	6' 2"
Weight:	215 lbs
Born:	1896

It is noted that the place of birth is not shown in these records.

The current telephone directory for Baltimore reflects that LOUIS C. ROCHE, 301 E. Gittings Ave. is a subscriber of number ID 8463.

A call was made on 3/10/53 to the above telephone number under suitable pretext, and a woman who identified herself as Mrs. ROCHE advised that LOUIS C. ROCHE resided at 301 E. Gittings Ave. and that he was employed by the Maryland Glass Corp.

A call was made to the Maryland Glass Corp. under suitable pretext on 3/18/53, and a man, one Mr. CLEVINGER, who identified himself as the Assistant Plant Manager of the Maryland Glass Corp., 2147 Wicomico Street, Baltimore, advised that LOUIS C. ROCHE, who is the plant manager, has been employed by the Maryland Glass Corp. for approximately 30 years, and that he was formerly employed by the Emerson Drug Co. Mr. CLEVENGER stated that Mr. ROCHE presently resides at 301 E. Gittings Ave. where he has lived for a number of years and that to the best of his knowledge, ROCHE was born and raised in Maryland, and that he has never resided outside of the State.

The Identification Record of the Baltimore City Police Department as checked by SE JAMES R. COCHRAN, failed to reveal a criminal record for LOUIS C. ROCHE.

The following confidential informants were contacted as set forth below, concerning ROCHE with negative results:

In this connection it is noted that NATHAN CARL, 43-10 10th Street, Long Island City, New York, was interviewed on February 5, 1951 by SAS LEO H. FRUTKIN and JAMES P. LEE. He advised that he owned the Carl Pipe Bending Company located at the above-noted address and that his father LOUIS CARL operated the Carl Company, 103 20th Street, Brooklyn, New York,

LOUIS CARL was separately interviewed on the same date by the same Special Agents. Both NATHAN and LOUIS CARL were unable to identify a photograph of the subject. Both men recalled the sale of a pipe bending machine to the Soviet Government Purchasing Commission through the Lend Lease authority. This sale was made on April 2, 1947 for $12,600. LOUIS CARL recalled that a representative of the Soviet government visited his shop, but he was unable to recall the subject or any other Russian who came to the shop.

In March, 1952 Lieutenant MARTIN JENNINGS (NA), Madison, New Jersey, Police Department, furnished information reflecting that LUKE N. SHAREN resided at 250 Kings Road, Madison, New Jersey, and had resided there for approximately 19 years. ~~NY~~ NY

On March 29, 1952 Lieutenant JENNINGS advised that Dr. SHARENKOFF, brother of LUKE SHAREN, was in Madison, New Jersey in either 1942 or 1943.

On April 28, 1947 Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, supplied a list of nine Bulgarian Communists whom he considered to be the most dangerous and subversive to the State of Michigan. Included in this group was Dr. VICTOR SHARENKOFF. NY NI FIA BULGARIA

The May 2, 1948 issue of the Michigan edition of "The Worker" carried an article entitled, "Forty Years of May Day Struggle" which purported to be a story of the life of Dr. SHARENKOFF. Among other things part of this article noted that Dr. SHARENKOFF had been National President of the Bulgarian-American People's League for the last ten years.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, has advised that the Bulgarian-American People's League was an organization dominated by the Communist Party.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, as checked in March, 1949 reflected that Dr. SHARENKOFF's name appeared on the outgoing manifest of passengers departing from the United States aboard the MS BATORY from New York City on September 13, 1948.

On March 27, 1953 ~~LUKE~~ SHAREN was interviewed by the writer while at his work as a driver for the American Railway Express Company in New York City. Mr. SHAREN stated that in 1943 his brother, Dr. VICTOR SHARENKOFF was hospitalized in the Brooklyn Hospital because of ulcers. After he was discharged from the hospital he went to Florida for a short while, but did not go to LUKE SHAREN's home at 250 Kings Road, Madison, New Jersey. NJ

Mr. SHAREN pointed out that his brother never stayed at his home for any length of time because he and his brother disagreed so strongly as to their politics. He stated that he had only met two or three of his brother's acquaintances and never knew them by name. He was unable to recognize the name of YAKOVLEV and was unable to identify a photograph of the subject. Mr. SHAREN stated that he last heard from his brother last summer, at which time Dr. SHARENKOFF was a professor of English in the University of Bulgaria. He noted that his brother was in poor health and was blind in one eye. Mr. SHAREN was unable to explain the fact that his brother had used his address as he had never stayed at his home and had never used it as a mailing address, to his knowledge.

resided or worked in Columbus, Ohio. Mr. PEARCE could not recall ROCHE ever receiving mail at 2525 North High Street,

Telephone and City Directories for the period 1942-1946 were checked in Columbus, Ohio and no persons identifiable with ROTCHE, ROCHE or BULAGIN could be found. No credit records could be found at the Ohio Bureau of Credits and no criminal record found at the Columbus, Ohio Police Department.

The Baltimore Office advised that the indices of that office failed to reflect any information concerning L. C. ROCHE. The Credit Bureau of Baltimore, Inc., as checked by SE JAMES R. COCHRAN on March 5, 1953, reflected that a report dated April 17, 1941 pertaining to LOUIS C. ROCHE, of 301 East Gittings Avenue, reflected that this person had been employed since about 1924 by the Maryland Glass Corporation, Mount Winans, Baltimore City, as Superintendent of the plant. This report stated that ROCHE was married to RUTH ROCHE; that he was about 44-45 years of age, and that he had lived at 301 East Gitting Avenue since about 1924, sharing the property with his wife and four children. M d.

It stated that he was a chemist by profession and had been formerly employed by the Emerson Drug Company of Baltimore. The report stated that he was well regarded by those who had been consulted and contained no derogatory information. M d.

The records of the Supervisor of Elections of Baltimore City, Gay and Fayette Streets, Baltimore, as checked by SA CHARLES M. FLEURY, reveal that LOUIS C. ROCHE, 301 East Gittings Avenue, registered on November 22, 1939, indicating that he was 43 years of age, a factory manager, native born, and that he had lived in the State for 43 years. His Party affiliation was shown as one of the two major political parties. He registered in the following years and at no time changed his political preference: 1940; 1942-1944; 1946-1948; 1950-1951.

It is to be noted that RUTH ROCHE and LOUIS C. ROCHE, JR., also 301 East Gittings Avenue, were registered to vote and that their political preference was shown as one of the two major political parties.

The records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, State of Maryland, Baltimore, as checked by SE JAMES R.

NY 100-81002

COCHRAN, reveal that LOUIS C. ROCHE, 301 East Gittings Avenue, Baltimore, was issued operator's license No. 88241 on September 3, 1937. He was described as follows:

Race	White
Sex	Male
Height	6' 2"
Weight	215 lbs.
Born	1896

It is noted that the place of birth is not shown in these records.

The current telephone directory for Baltimore reflects that LOUIS C. ROCHE, 301 East Gittings Avenue, is a subscriber of number ID 8463.

Confidential Informant T-9, of known reliability, advised on March 10, 1953 that LOUIS C. ROCHE resided at 301 East Gittings Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland and was employed by the Maryland Glass Corporation.

Confidential Informant T-10, of known reliability, advised on March 18, 1953 that LOUIS C. ROCHE was the plant manager of the Maryland Glass Corporation, 2147 Wicomico Street Baltimore, Maryland and had been employed by that corporation for approximately thirty years. This informant further advised that ROCHE had formerly been employed by the Emerson Drug Company, and to the best of the informant's knowledge, ROCHE was born and raised in Maryland.

The Identification Division of the Baltimore City Police Department, as checked by SA JAMES R. COCHRAN, failed to reveal a criminal record for LOUIS C. ROCHE.

Confidential Informants T-11, T-12, T-13, T-14, T-15, T-16, T-17, and T-18, all of known reliability and all of whom have knowledge of Communist activity in the Baltimore, Maryland area, were contacted in March, 1953 concerning LOUIS C. ROCHE with negative results.

On January 26, 1945 Mr. J. CLARK SUTHERLAND, geologist, Pacific Clay Products Company, 306 West Avenue 26, Los Angeles, California, advised SA ELMER F. III MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Mrs. GLENN ~~MC~~ BROOM ~~WALKER~~, 14 East 90th Street, New York City, advised SA WILLIAM D. WRIGHT, III in July, 1952 that she taught English at the Amtorg Technicum from January, 1944 to August, 1948. She advised she knew the subject slightly and knew the subject's wife somewhat better. She noted that she taught Mrs. YAKOVLEV and that her English was not very good and inferior to the average Columbian student among the Soviets. She first taught Mrs. YAKOVLEV about 1947 and taught her for a year and a half, although she realized that Mrs. YAKOVLEV had been in the United States for a longer period. She noted that the subject and his wife had twin children who were born in the United States and had American nurses, who were said to have spoken only English. (It would appear that Mrs. WALKER may be mistaken as to the year in which she began to teach Mrs. YAKOVLEV as the subject and Mrs. YAKOVLEV both left the United States in December, 1946.)

In view of the fact that the referenced St. Louis letter set out information that it was believed that IVAN ANISIMOVICH BULAVIN is identical with IVAN A. BULAGIN, additional investigation was made at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. CHARLES PEARCE, Executive Secretary of the American Ceramic Society, 2525 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio, once again checked his records concerning personnel and also concerning the membership of the society and failed to find any reference to the name of BULAVIN.

The records of the enrollment of students and instructors at Ohio State University for the period 1942 to 1950 were checked with the assistance of Miss BONNIE WOODBURY, Registrar's Office, and no name even phonetically similar to BULAVIN could be located.

Confidential Informants [REDACTED] were both contacted on 4-2-53 and advised SA FRANCIS E. MURPHY orally that they had no knowledge of any person by the name of BULAVIN or BULAGIN.

A check of the Ohio Bureau of Credits, 83 South 4th Street, and the Ohio Retail Credit Company, 8 E. Broad Street, failed to reveal any information under the name of either BULAVIN or BULAGIN.

A check of the records of the Columbus Police Department and the Franklin County Sheriff's Office failed to reveal any arrest record concerning any individual with names phonetically similar to BULAVIN or BULAGIN.

No further investigation is being conducted by this office UACB.

RE: New York letter to Director, dated April 22, 1953.

Referenced letter requested Boston to identify individuals known as ARABIAN and PAPAIZIAN.

The files of the Boston Office disclosed that the aforementioned person known as ARABIAN is identical with GREGORY J. ARABIAN, 394 Mt. Auburn Street, Watertown, Mass. ARABIAN is the subject of Boston file 100-15496.

Boston files disclose that GREGORY J. ARABIAN was reported to be a member of the Communist Political Association and would be in contact with local CPA officials during 1944. ARABIAN is a member of the Metropolitan Boston Branch of the Armenian Progressive League of America, which organization has been cited by the Attorney General as within the purview of Executive Order 9835. ARABIAN was also a member of the International Workers Order in the Greater Boston area.

ARABIAN was born September 2, 1902 in Turkey and entered the United States in 1921.

According to [redacted] who is of known reliability and familiar with phases of Armenian activities in the Greater Boston area, stated that GREGORY J. ARABIAN continues to be considered as one of the principal members of the Metropolitan Boston Branch of the Armenian Progressive League of America. b2 b7D

The individual referred to as PAPAIZIAN in the referenced letter is identical with ARIS PAPAIZIAN, 16 Walcott Road, Watertown, Mass.

[redacted] stated that ARIS PAPAIZIAN is known to him as one of the leaders of the Metropolitan Boston Branch of the Armenian Progressive League of America. b2 b7D

According to the aforementioned informant, ARABIAN and PAPAIZIAN are considered by many of the individuals in the Armenian population group as being strongly in favor of the governments of Soviet Armenia and the USSR.

Mrs. EMILY McCONNELL, Personnel Secretary, National Research Corporation, 70 Memorial Drive, Cambridge, Mass., stated that GILBERT R. W. BOYER was formerly Personnel Manager of the National Research Corporation. According to Mrs. McCONNELL, BOYER resigned from the National Research Corporation during February, 1946.

Mr. ROBERT A. STAUFFER, Vice-President and Director of Research, National Research Corporation, Cambridge, Mass., stated that he recalled the request by this corporation in 1945 for visas to allow several of the engineers of the National Research Corporation to travel to the Soviet Union for the purpose of setting up equipment that was being sent to the Soviet Union by the National Research Corporation under the Lend Lease Program.

Mr. STAUFFER stated neither the Russian Consulate at New York City nor the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C. granted any visas in 1945 to the National Research Corporation to sent its engineers to Russia.

Mr. JOHN HARDING DURANT, Business Manager of the Research Department, National Research Corporation, Cambridge, Mass., stated that no one from the National Research Corporation went to Russia in 1945. Mr. DURANT stated that if the Russian authorities in this country had granted the visas requested for the National Research Corporation, he would have been one of the engineers who would have gone to Russia at that time.

Mr. DURANT stated that no one from the National Research Corporation went to the Soviet Union in 1945.

He advised that at a previous time he had applied to the Soviet Consul for a position in the Soviet Union as a radio engineer. He stated that he wanted to do something for the war effort since he was rejected by both the Army and Navy because of poor eyesight and further because at the time he had been given a very menial position with the Hazeltine Electronics Corporation. He felt that if he applied for a position with the Soviet Union, he could secure a very valuable position as a radio engineer because of his technical knowledge, experience and education.

He further advised that he had continued his studies at the Brooklyn Institute in New York and was studying the Russian language at the American-Russian Institute.

The American-Russian Institute has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

He explained his visit to the Soviet Consulate on May 5, 1943 as a response to an application made by him and he was referred to Mr. YAKOVLEV. He stated that he was advised by YAKOVLEV that it would take approximately nine months to clear his application with the Soviet Union. He stated that he had no intention at the time of the interview of going to the Soviet Union since he had been given a more responsible position by the Hazeltine Corporation. He did consider going to the Soviet Union following the war since he felt that radio technicians would be "a dime a dozen in the United States following the war".

SHEPPARD added that he had been contacted by YAKOVLEV on at least five or six occasions following his original contact of May 5, 1943, each time at the initiative of YAKOVLEV.

On January 4, 1945 T-3, of known reliability, advised that the subject visited the law offices of PAUL J. KERN and his associate located on the 32nd Floor of 10 East 40th Street, New York City. ~~NY~~

T-4, of known reliability, on April 25, 1945, advised of a meeting held on April 12, 1945 at the Hotel Commodore, New York City by the subject with the National Executive Committee of the ICOR Association for Information on the Economic, Cultural and Social Life of the Jews the World Over, Incorporated and the Executive Committee of Ambijan. ~~NY~~ JANOWSKY, National Secretary of ICOR told the informant that this meeting was ordered at the suggestion of the subject.

It was explained that for two years or so there was a feeling of a kind of competition between ICOR and the Ambijan. Their work was almost identical. Ambijan took the spotlight because the Soviet Government gave it its official blessing and ICOR felt that it had been shoved in the background. ICOR resented this and was quite outspoken about it in conversation with Soviet officials. YAKOVLEV was instructed by the Soviet Embassy in Washington to bring these two organizations together and impress upon them the importance of their work.

YAKOVLEV spoke at the above-mentioned meeting and explained that the executive committees of both organizations were of great importance for the cause of unity among the Jewish people and that both organizations were doing great work in the field of moral and material aid to the Soviet Union and that the Soviet Government appreciated very much their work. According to JANOWSKY, YAKOVLEV stated that "we" (the Soviet officials) consider the work of Ambijan and the ICOR very important, each organization in its own field, the work of ICOR among the Jewish masses - workers and the poor middle class and the work of the Ambijan among the richer middle class and the rich Jews.

YAKOVLEV added that both organizations in this way were carrying the idea of unity to all the Jewish people in the United States and they were involving all the Jews in aid to the Soviet Union through their campaigns to aid the war orphans in Stalingrad and and Birobidjan. JANOWSKY added that the executive committees of both organizations were very much impressed by YAKOVLEV and each organization was continuing to work in their chartered field.

Regarding ADOMIAN, the records of Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, reflect that JOHN JACOB WEINROTH, also known as: JACOB WEINROTH and LAN ADOMIAN, was naturalized on March 26, 1940 in the United States Court in the Eastern District of New York. He was born in Mogilev, Russia on April 29, 1905 and entered the United States from Germany on November 1, 1923. He left the United States as a stowaway in February, 1938 to join the Spanish Army in Spain and reentered the United States at New York City on December 30, 1938. D.S.S.P.

LAN ADOMIAN was interviewed on September 29, 1950 by SAS JAMES P. LEE and RAYMOND P. WIRTH. At that time he admitted knowing the subject and the fact that he was Vice Consul of the Soviet Consulate in New York City. He claimed he first met YAKOVLEV in 1944 or 1945 when he went to the Consulate to obtain a visa to visit Russia. He claimed he desired to visit Russia in order to observe and partake of the cultural life. ADOMIAN also claimed he only recontacted the subject on about five or six occasions but never obtained the visa he was looking for.

~~SECRET~~

He also mentioned that he had no contact with the subject after he left the United States nor did ADOMIAN ever have any correspondence with him. ADOMIAN also claimed that YAKOVLEV never requested him to perform any activities for him.

ADOMIAN stated he came to the United States at the age of eighteen and was a naturalized American citizen. He fought with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain in 1938 but would not admit that he had membership in the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. When he returned from Spain for a short period he acted as an interpreter and translator at the Amtorg Trading Corporation, an official Soviet agency. At the time of the interview ADOMIAN gave his true name as JOHN JACOB WEINROTH.

It is noted that the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade has been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Since 1940 ADOMIAN has been engaged in the field of composing and arranging music on a free lance basis.

On November 30, 1953 Mr. TAGE HOGIUND, superintendent at the former residence of ADOMIAN's at 41 West 72nd Street, advised that ADOMIAN's current residence was Hamborgo #29, Mexico 6, D.F. Mexico.

The records of Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, reflected that VLADIMIR DROZDOV entered the United States at New York City on October 2, 1923. He was born on May 25, 1882 at Taratov, Russia and naturalized in New York City on November 18, 1929. His wife's name was ANNA and he had two children, BUL and NATALIE.
VLADIMIR DROZDOV

T-3, of known reliability, described DROZDOV as a former official in the Czarist Imperial Court. He graduated with honors from Imperial Conservatory of Music in St. Petersburg, Russia. According to the informant, DROZDOV was not too prominent in White Russian circles in New York but known as a teacher of music. His son and daughter were also musically inclined. The informant stated that DROZDOV was apparently anti-Soviet but was reported to be a very heavy drinker.

VLADIMIR DROZDOV was interviewed on February 3, 1953 by SAS DWIGHT M. WELLS and FRANK J. REILLY at his residence at 203 West 81st Street, New York City. DROZDOV stressed the point that the main interest in his life was his music and that his relations with the representatives of the Soviet Government were based on a mutual interest in the arts and resulted in his attempts to enhance his own career in the music world. He admitted knowing and socializing with PAVEL P. MIKHAILOV, head of the Soviet Consulate in New York City in 1945, but claimed only a passing acquaintance with YAKOVLEV. He admitted he had written new music for the Soviet national anthem which he reportedly had given to the subject. He described this as having no political significance. He expressed a strong friendship for LEONID FEDOTOV, Secretary of the Soviet Consulate in 1945. He also admitted meeting both ANDREI GROMYKO and ANDREI VISHINSKY, former and present head of the Soviet Delegation to the United Nations, at official Soviet social functions. DROZDOV claimed he had never been requested by the Soviets to aid them in any manner or perform any act inimical to the interests of the United States. He further claimed to be a loyal American and had no use for Communism.

Regarding Metropolitan BENJAMIN, T-2, of unknown reliability, a priest who was attached to the Patriarchal Russian Orthodox Church at 15 East 97th Street, New York City in 1945, advised that the Russian Orthodox Church in the United States was formerly declared autonomous in 1924 and separated from Moscow. It grew to include some 350 parishes pledged to Metropolitan THEOPHILUS OF San Francisco who headed the church in 1945. In the year 1945 only seven parishes pledged allegiance to Metropolitan BENJAMIN JOHN FEDCHENKOFF who headed the Patriarchal Russian Orthodox Church in America.

NY. RUSSIA LATVIA

In 1933 Metropolitan BENJAMIN entered the United States claiming appointment by the Moscow Patriarch as Metropolitan of North American and the Aleutian Islands. He campaigned to bring the autonomous Russian Orthodox Church in the United States into the fold of the mother church in Russia. The autonomous church group refused to accept the proposals of the Patriarchal Church because of the alleged demands of Metropolitan BENJAMIN that the church leaders given a loyalty pledge to the Soviet Government and not criticize it.

In 1945 the Sobor (Convention) of the Patriarchal Church was held in Moscow. It was decided that the autonomous church in the United States should combine with the churches of Metropolitan BENJAMIN to elect a new Metropolitan as "Patriarchal Exarch of all American and Canada". The autonomous faction rejected this proposal completely.

T-3, of known reliability, advised in 1948 that Metropolitan BENJAMIN was traveling to Riga, Latvia and was succeeded by Archbishop MAKARY at the St. Nicholas Cathedral, 15 East 97th Street, New York City.

T-4, of known reliability, advised that the following background information is known regarding MOSES ISAAC FINKELSTEIN. In 1943 he resided at 10 West 93rd Street, New York City. He was employed in 1941 by the American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom, Incorporated, 519 West 121st Street. In 1942 he was employed by the Jewish Council for Russian War Relief, Incorporated, 11 East 35th Street, New York City. He was the Executive Secretary of this organization. FINKELSTEIN's wife's name was given as MARY FREDA MOSCOWITZ. ~~FINKELSTEIN~~ NY

In October 1946 the New York Supreme Court granted FINKELSTEIN permission to change his name legally to MOSES ISAAC FINLEY. NY

The American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom was cited as a Communist front which defended Communist teachers by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report dated June 25, 1942.

On August 16, 1951 WILLIAM MARTIN CANNING testified before a public session of the MC CARRAN Committee and identified MOSES FINKELSTEIN as having been a member of the Communist Party unit at Columbia University and also that he, CANNING, had attended meetings of a Communist Study Group which met at FINKELSTEIN's home. NY

In September, 1945 a pamphlet announcing the opening of the New School of Jewish Studies, 13 Astor Place, New York City included the name of MOSES FINKELSTEIN on the list of "sponsors and educators".

The School of Jewish Studies has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Appendix - Part IX of the 1944 Report of the Special House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 932 lists MOSES I. FINKELSTEIN as a member of the School for Democracy as of January, 1942. NY

The School for Democracy was cited by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report dated March 29, 1944, pages 89 and 168 as follows:

"In 1941, the Communists established a school in New York City which was known as the School for Democracy (now merged with the Workers School into the Jefferson School of Social Science." The above "was established by Communist teachers ousted from the public school system of New York City."

T-5, of known reliability, provided the information that FINKELSTEIN from September 1, 1946 to March 28, 1947 was employed as a Membership Director of the American Russian Institute for Cultural Relations with the Soviet Union, Incorporated, 58 Park Avenue, New York City.

The American Russian Institute has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Newark Evening News", a home evening newspaper published in Newark, New Jersey in its issue of January 2, 1953 stated that FINKELSTEIN was dismissed as Assistant Professor of History at Rutgers University for failure to meet an ultimatum that he express willingness to answer a sub-committee regarding his possible Communist affiliations.

[REDACTED] (S)

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service reflect that Dr. JACOB MAX GERSHBERG, 48 West 83rd Street, New York City filed a petition for naturalization in the Southern District of New York on August 12, 1929. His date of birth was given as September 17, 1879 at Britchani, Rumania. His last foreign residence was given as Madrid, Spain and he emigrated to the United States from Valencia, Spain. He entry for permanent residence was made at New York on August 27, 1924. GERSHBERG was naturalized in the Southern District of New York on April 13, 1930, Certificate Number 3227801.

On September 9, 1946 Dr. JACOB MAX GERSHBERG, 125 Riverside Drive, New York City appeared at the Los Angeles Office and stated that he was in Los Angeles on a vacation and had visited a Dr. MAXIMILLIAN OBERMAYER, 2007 West Wilshire Boulevard on September 6, 1946. He attempted to get OBERMAYER to join his medical association which he claimed had for its purpose better CALIF relationships between South American and United States doctors. GERSHBERG had identified himself by exhibiting his American Medical Association membership card numbered 55669 and his naturalization certificate numbered 3227801, issued April 14, 1930 at New York City. GERSHBERG claimed that OBERMAYER was very hostile and called him a fake and impostor. Apparently the purpose of GERSHBERG's complaint was to secure printing of a letter written by him threatening OBERMAYER with a law suit.

On September 21, 1946 the San Antonio Police Department, San Antonio, Texas, provided the information that Dr. JACOB MAX GERSHBERG, 125 Riverside Drive, New York City, had been arrested in connection with soliciting contributions from local physicians for the International Spanish Speaking Association of Physicians, 125 Riverside Drive, New York City. At the time of his arrest he claimed to have been born in Bessarabia and was an American citizen. He was released at that time due to lack of evidence of fraud in connection with his solicitations.

In 1944 Mr. MARTIN GOOLWING, 303 East 83rd Street, who was superintendent at 1201 Lexington Avenue for twelve years until September, 1943, advised SA WARREN R. HEARN that Mrs. LYDIA NIKIFOROFF resided there for over three years. At that time she was unemployed and separated from her husband who lived in Mexico. She had two daughters, one married to a B. ASHEUKOFF and resided in Mexico. The other daughter, NINA, he though was a teacher of Russian in some college in Connecticut.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City reflected that NIKIFOROFF filed a petition for naturalization on March 23, 1929. She was born in Petrograd, Russia on March 8, 1886. Her husband BASIL NIKIFOROFF was born on August 30, 1888 in Russia. She was granted citizenship in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York on July 5, 1928. She had two daughters, NINA and TANIA, both born in Russia. At the time of obtaining her citizenship, her daughters were alleged to be attending Cornell University. According to the Immigration and Naturalization Service records NINA NIKIFOROFF applied for derivative citizenship in April, 1940. (S) b1

Immigration and Naturalization Service files reflect that he was born May 30, 1897 at St. Petersburg, Russia and arrived in the United States at New York on February 10, 1941. He filed petition for naturalization on May 27, 1948 and was naturalized in the Southern District of New York on November 19, 1951. His residence as of May 27, 1948 was 251 East 31st Street, New York City. He was married and his wife's name was MARIE, also born in Russia on February 21, 1901 and they have two children. b1

It was reported by T-1 on [REDACTED] b1

T-10, of known reliability, advised on October 15, 1947 that POUTIATIN was Chairman of the Russian Committee for Stalingrad. On March 13, 1947 this same informant advised that POUTIATIN was a member of the National Committee of the American Biro-Bidjan.

The Russian Committee for Stalingrad was under sponsorship of the American Biro-Bidjan Committee which organization was cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives Report dated March 29, 1944.

On October 31, 1942 ALEXANDER POUTIATIN with eleven others filed articles of incorporation with the Clerk of New York County for the incorporation of the Russian American Club for Victory. The purpose of this club was "to raise moneys particularly for Russian War Relief, Allied War Relief, Red Cross, USO and similar organizations". The funds obtained were to be obtained through proceeds of social functions. This club was located at 201 West 72nd Street, New York City.

NIKOLAI P. RYBAKOFF, editor of the anti-Communist Russian language newspaper "Rossiya" in New York City in 1948 described POUTIATIN was a "tool of the Soviet Government". He constantly followed the Soviet line in his church and organizational activities and in his articles written in the "Russky Golos", a Communist Russian language newspaper in New York City.

T-12, of known reliability, in 1949 advised that he knew POUTIATIN to be active in promoting that faction of the Russian Orthodox Church which favored the establishment of the spiritual and administrative jurisdiction of the Patriarch of Moscow. He knew POUTIATIN was formerly active in the Club Pobeda which was considered to be pro-Soviet and actively engaged in pro-Soviet propaganda. The informant believed that the pro-Soviet activities that POUTIATIN engaged in were caused mostly by religious zeal.

Dr. SLOBODY is identical to Dr. LAWRENCE B. SLOBODY. Dr. SLOBODY was interviewed on January 19, 20 and 25, 1954 by SA ARTHUR E. NEUBAUER. He is currently residing at 875 West End Avenue, New York City with an office at One East 105th Street, New York City where he is attached to the staff of the Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospital as a Pediatrician.

The 1950 "American Medical Directory" reflects that Dr. SLOBODY was born in 1910. He graduated in 1936 from the New York Medical College, Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospital, New York City. He was licensed in 1938 and is a Pediatrics specialist. He resided as of 1950 at 875 West End Avenue and his office at that time was at 239 Central Park West.

During the course of the interview Dr. SLOBODY advised that he was a Pediatrician for children of Russians connected with the New York Russian Consulate from approximately 1941 to 1945. He advised that he had no records of any of his treatments during that period and therefore could not be more specific about the dates. He advised that he spoke only a few words of Russian and never had social or political contacts with any of the Russians. Most of his contacts with them were at three places, that is in addition to visits to various homes throughout the city. He mentioned the apartments above the Consulate at 7 East 61st Street, a Soviet private school at 6 East 87th Street and the living quarters above it and the building at 109th Street and Columbus or Amsterdam Avenue where numerous Russian lived.

After the war, about 1945, the Russians stopped coming to him for treatment of their children. He was never informed why. During the war he received cards and occasional gifts such as a fountain pen at Christmastime but this also ended about 1945 at which time he was apparently ruled out as their pediatrician. He stated this may have been because of changing conditions when the war ended or possibly because he was no longer too interested in getting their business.

During the course of the interviews SLOBODY identified photographs of the subject and his wife, ANASTASIA YAKOVLEV but he could not recall YAKOVLEV's first name. Throughout the furnish of the following information Dr. SLOBODY gave no indication that he was aware of the importance of YAKOVLEV in the Russian espionage apparatus as had been disclosed in the newspapers.

He advised that the YAKOVLEVS impressed him more than any other Russians he met possibly due to their importance and the authority they appeared to represent and possibly also because of the great number of times he treated their children. He advised that altogether he may have treated their children on as many as thirty different occasions. He could not recall the years covered by the treatments but believed that they ran from 1943 to 1945 or early 1946,

He first treated the children when the subject resided in the West 80s between Central Park West and Columbus Avenue. Later they moved to a building on West 109th Street on the sixth floor. He recalled their children consisted of two small twins born around 1941 or 1942 and an older child who was a girl. He did not remember whether the twins were boys or girls.

In addition to his visits to the subject's home, on occasion the subject and his wife brought their children to SLOBODY's office which at that time was at 239 Central Park West. Also on occasion he would see the subject at the Russian Consulate. He got the impression that the subject was important and was possibly a member of the "Russian Secret Police" for the following reasons:

On the few occasion that he would see YAKOVLEV at the Consulate or possibly at the Soviet private school, the other Russians treated YAKOVLEV with respect and he acted with an air of authority. Unlike the others, when the children were even slightly sick, the doctor was called. Regardless of the time of day SLOBODY visited the subject's residence, on many occasions the subject was there as though he had no regular job. He commented on this fact to Mrs. YAKOVLEV and she replied that he was out of town and did a lot of travelling, giving the impression of the subject being his own boss.

The subject's wife spoke fairly good English but had a definite Russian appearance. She told Dr. SLOBODY that she did translating of documents. SLOBODY did not recall any maid, housekeeper or nursemaid at either of the YAKOVLEV residences. He did not know them socially and never conversed with them on anything unusual. Neither the subject nor his wife requested anything unusual of SLOBODY and he did not know of any Americans who had contact with the subject.

In 1945 other Russians stopped coming to him; however, oddly enough the YAKOVLEVS continued to have him for their children. At one time Mrs. YAKOVLEV made the statement that they prefer him to the other doctor being used. They did not mention who this doctor was. Also at this time he raised his prices but the YAKOVLEVS did not mind this, indicating that they were normally prosperous.

Note: Yakovlev, Soviet National, was the espionage superior of Harry Gold. He left the U. S. in December, 1946. He was Vice Consul at the Soviet Consulate in New York City. New York has been checking out various contacts of Yakovlev during his residence in New York City. Poutiatin was in contact with Yakovlev. Poutiatin a subject of an IS-R case closed in 1949. Informants and sources of information advised no indication of pro-Soviet activity on part of Poutiatin, though at one time he was considered pro-Russian from the standpoint of national pride, rather than political belief. Poutiatin also described as an avid churchman in the Moscow dominated branch of the Russian Orthodox Church but not a Communist. Interview recommended.

Enclosed herewith are five copies of the report of SA WALTER A. WANGENHEIM, 6/11/54, NY in instant case.

It is noted that [REDACTED]

It appears that this individual is identical to ALICE ALPERT, was: Alice Martin, Mrs. James Martin. She was on the staff of "New Currents" magazine published by the CJWAS in 1944 and an instructor at the Jefferson School of Social Science.

In view of the fact that this individual is an active subject in connection with the MOCASE, she is not being documented in the attached report.

It appears that this individual is identical to ESTHER TREBACH RAND who in 1944 was managing editor of "New Currents" and executive secretary of the CJWAS. At the present time this individual is the subject of an active investigation in the MOCASE. In 1944 she was on close terms with JACK SOBIE, principal subject of that case and in view of this she was not identified in attached report.

N.Y. The aforementioned individual appears to be identical to one LEO PRESSMAN.

On January 22 and 23, 1952 MARIA WICHER, Clairmont Circle, Decatur, Georgia was interviewed by SASC. DALLAS NOBLEY of the Atlanta Office and RICHARD A. MINTHAN of New York Office.

This individual provided information regarding various individuals affiliated with Russian War Relief in New York City. She advised that during the period of her activity as Executive Secretary at the West Side Branch of Russian War Relief, she had occasion to have contact with what she described as a Russian Institute located somewhere on Park Avenue near 55th Street in New York City. She recalled that LEO PRESSMAN taught Russian at this institute during the period that Russian War Relief was active. She identified PRESSMAN as a piano instructor who was related to SERGEI KOURNAKOFF. KOURNAKOFF was a White Russian who obtained Soviet citizenship and returned to the Soviet Union and allegedly died over there sometime in 1948.

According to WICHER, PRESSMAN was married to the daughter of a former Russian impresario, whose name she did not recall, who had fled from Russia following the revolution, bringing with him to this country costumes of the Russian Opera Company. She described PRESSMAN as one hundred percent pro-Soviet and recalled he was active in Russian War Relief and very often gave concerts under the auspices of this organization.

[REDACTED]

The records of the INS disclosed that ALEXANDER BELENKI entered the United States at New York on December 26, 1941. His last foreign residence was Antwerp, Belgium. He was accompanied by his wife, VALENTINE BELENKI. BELENKI filed petition for naturalization on April 30, 1948.

On January 18, 1949 he was afforded a hearing under oath by INS officials. He advised at that time he was born December 21, 1908 in Russia and was currently residing at 61 West 88th Street, New York City, with his wife. He came to the United States to establish permanent residence and he had last renewed his Russian passport in 1942 or the beginning of 1943. He advised that during World War II he was employed for a period as an engineer doing repair work for the Western Electric Company in Clifton, New Jersey. During this hearing BELENKI admitted he had been to the Soviet Consulate in New York City on two or three occasions in 1942-1943 but only for the purpose of renewing his passport.

BELENKI was afforded another hearing by INS on March 22, 1951. During this hearing he stated he was never a member of the Communist Party. He explained at that time that he had attempted to extend his Russian passport in 1943 only because he thought Russia and the United States would "get together".

Mrs. VALENTINE BELENKI, 125 West 76th Street, New York City was interviewed on March 16, 1954 by SAs GEORGE M. OWEN and JOHN H. WAGNER. She advised at that time that BELENKI was residing in Brussels, Belgium and had departed from the United States in February, 1952.

Russ Mrs. BELENKI during the course of the interview, advised that she and her husband had met ALEXANDER FOMINE, Clerk at the Soviet Consulate in New York City when she and her husband visited the Consulate regarding his passport. She stated possibly that FOMINE visited their apartment socially. She claimed that she was unaware of any relationship between her husband and FOMINE other than a slight social acquaintanceship. T-1, of known reliability, advised that VLADIMIR KAZAKEVICH was born on August 2, 1908 in St. Petersburg, Russia. He entered the United States on February 28, 1921 and attended school at the University of Southern California and Columbia University, New York City. He filed declaration of intention at New York City on June 28, 1926 but made no effort to be naturalized until 1935. According to the informant he was employed as a statistician and from 1935 to 1941 was attached to the staff of the Russian language newspaper "Russky Golos".

It was ascertained that the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship maintained a biographical file on VLADIMIR KAZAKEVICH. He was described as having published several books on banking and economics and had been a contributor for several years to "Science and Society" and "Soviet Russia Today". He was described as a specialist in the field of Russian economics and history and as such had spoken before many clubs, organizations and colleges and had participated in many conferences and forums.

The National Council of American-Soviet Friendship has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Concerning "Science and Society" and "Soviet Russia Today", the following appears in a booklet entitled "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", dated May 14, 1951, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, US House of Representatives, 82nd Congress.

"Science and Society"

"1. Cited as a Communist publication. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 96.)"

"Soviet Russia Today"

"1. Cited as a Communist front. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 167; also cited in Report, June 25, 1942, p. 21.)"

"2. Cited as a 'Communist-front publication.' (Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report No. 1953, on the Congress of American Women, April 26, 1950 (originally released October 23, 1949) p. 108)

T-6. of known reliability. [REDACTED]

The International Workers Order has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In a signed statement dated November 30, 1945, ELIZABETH T. BENTLEY, self-admitted Soviet espionage agent, stated as follows regarding KAZAKEVICH:

".....Sometime in 1942, I recall one Vladimir Kazakevich a former professor at Cornell University, was a somewhat frequent visitor to Golos' office (JACOB GOLOS, BENTLEY'S Soviet espionage superior). This individual, who was not, to my knowledge, a member of the Communist Party, but had Communist leanings, was at that time barely making a living teaching the Russian language and giving lectures and writing excerpts for Communist publications. Vladimir was not, to my knowledge, connected with any government agency, nor did he have any source for obtaining information, and as far as I know, was solely a friend of long standing of Golos. I do recall, however, that at some previous time he had some information concerning Trotskyites which he furnished Golos".

On September 27, 1949 MITCHELL SOLOMON of the INS advised that KAZAKEVICH and his wife, departed from the United States on September 23, 1949, both leaving as Russian citizens. According to SOLOMON, KAZAKEVICH'S Russian citizenship had been restored by the Soviet Union and his wife, though American born, had acquired Russian citizenship through her marriage to KAZAKEVICH. KAZAKEVICH, prior to his departure had told Mr. SOLOMON that he was "lucky and

"fortunate" to be able to return to Russia and that he was to report to the Ministry of Higher Education at Moscow. KAZAKEVICH also made the statement that he had no intention of returning to the United States.

VLADIMIR POSNER

(in contact with YAK)
Mr. CHARLES N. PATI, Chief, Supply and Service Division, MM International Film Corporation, 701 Seventh Avenue, New York City, advised SA WALTER P. GAVIN on July 6, 1948 that VLADIMIR POSNER was employed as General Manager of MM International Film Corporation, a subsidiary of Loews Incorporated, from May 8, 1944 to November 14, 1947. He resigned on November 14, 1947 because of a slowdown in business. According to PATI, POSNER was born October 24, 1908 in Leningrad, Russia. His services with Loews Incorporated went back to about 1935 when he was first employed as a sound engineer by MM in Paris, France. He left the corporation in Paris about 1939 because of some difficulty with a superior and came to the United States about 1939 or 1940 and obtained a job with the Ilia Lopert Sound Film Transcription Company, New York City.

Mr. PATI advised that POSNER applied for his United States citizenship papers shortly after his arrival in the United States but on January 28, 1943 he obtained a Russian passport numbered 137975 issued at New York City.

Mr. PATI stated that POSNER spoke English, Russian and French and was a motion picture engineer. He had received a degree at Paris University and was a member of the faculty at the Sorbonne. PATI stated that during the time he was employed by MM International, POSNER made occasional trips in connection with business to Italy, France, England and Mexico.

T-1 advised on

T-1 provided the information that VLADIMIR POSNER was employed by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer International Film Corporation in New York City.

On September 10, 1953 Mr. CHARLES N. PATI advised SA JOSEPH F. BUSH that he had not seen POSNER since November, 1947 when this individual resigned his position with MGM Film Corporation. He advised that he had no first-hand information regarding POSNER'S present activities but stated that he had heard that POSNER, following his termination of employment in the United States travelled to Berlin, Germany and that he had recently heard that POSNER was now located in East Berlin and supervising theatres and film distribution there. According to Mr. PATI, POSNER left the United States sometime in 1948.

MAURICE SCHWARTZ

T-1 advised that [REDACTED] (S) b1

[REDACTED] (S) b1

In a signed statement furnished to T-3, of known reliability, dated June 11, 1952 MAURICE SCHWARTZ of 26 East 10th Street, New York City advised that he was the founder and director of the Yiddish Arts Theatre. The purpose of this group was to further the arts and the Jewish Theatre.

In his statement SCHWARTZ denied ever being a member of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order or the International Workers Order. He did admit becoming a sponsor of the Jewish Writers, Artists and Scientists in 1943. Also in 1943 he was invited to participate in a program sponsored by the Anti-Fascist League of Moscow. He also allowed his name to be used on a letterhead of the Anti-Fascist League.

In his statement SCHWARTZ denied ever believing in the principles of Communism.

The June 7, 1945 issue of the "Daily Worker", East coast Communist newspaper devoted two full columns to SCHWARTZ'S life and theatrical activities. The article stated that SCHWARTZ had returned from Hollywood where he played a role in the film "Mission to Moscow".

The June 30, 1943 issue of the "Daily Worker" showed that MAURICE SCHWARTZ appeared as an honorary co-chairman of the National Committee to the Soviet Delegation which was sponsored by the Committee of Jewish Writers and Artists.

In 1944 SIMON WEBER, of the editorial staff of "Jewish Daily Forward" anti-Communist Jewish language newspaper, stated MAURICE SCHWARTZ was not a Communist but "played up to the Russians". In his opinion SCHWARTZ behaved in a diplomatic manner towards the Russians in order that he would be in a position to obtain theatrical engagements in Russia after the war. WEBER added SCHWARTZ was closely associated with "Jewish Daily Forward" and wrote articles for the paper and was generally identified with the paper's policies.

Concerning the Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order, the following appears in a booklet entitled "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, May 14, 1951:

"Jewish Peoples Fraternal Order" (E.O. 10450)

"1. Cited as Communist and among the 'National group societies of International Workers Order,' (Attorney General J. Howard McGrath, letter to Loyalty Review Board, released September 11, 1950.)" and designated by the Attorney General of the U.S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Concerning the International Workers Order, the following appears in a booklet entitled "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, May 14, 1951:

"International Workers Order" (E.O. 10450)

"1. Cited as subversive and Communist, (Attorney General Tom Clark, letters to Loyalty Review Board, released December 4, 1947, and September 21, 1948.)" and designated by the Attorney General of the U.S. pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

JOHN E. VANDERPOOL, Superintendent at 145 East 55th Street, New York City in March, 1944 advised SA JOHN F. HIGGINS that LOUISE BARTLEY CLAIRMONT was a tenant in the building and also a regular subscriber to the "Daily Worker".

Mrs. L.L. WEISS, Secretary to JEROME HERSHFELD, owner of the building at 145 East 55th Street stated in March, 1944 that CLAIRMONT resided there since November, 1943. According to her records CLAIRMONT was a paid worker with Russian War Relief Association, 11 East 15th Street as a co-director.

Mr. WARREN P. LIVINGSTON, Bankers Trust Company and an officer in Russian War Relief, Incorporated, advised SA JOHN F. HIGGINS in March, 1944 that CLAIRMONT was born on March 12, 1910 in Waco, Texas. Between September, 1941 and January, 1942 she was connected with the United American Spanish Aid Association, Boston, Massachusetts. In reference to her work with Russian War Relief LIVINGSTON advised she served as a public relations officer and speaker.

SA GERARD B. TRACEY ascertained from DAVIS WEINGARD, Treasurer of American Russian Institute that CLAIRMONT as of May, 1948 was residing at 934 Patterson, The Argyle, San Antonio, Texas.

Yakovlev, Soviet National, was the espionage superior of Harry Gold. He left the United States in December, 1946. He was Vice Consul at the Soviet Consulate in New York City. New York has been checking various contacts of the subject during his residence in New York City and Schwartz was the subject of a SM-C and IS-R investigation closed in 1945. No record of CP membership was established and Schwartz denied believing in the principles of Communism; however, there was evidence of pro-Russian sentiments and sympathy on his part. Schwartz was referred to during the war years in articles in the "Daily Worker." An interview of Schwartz is recommended.

On May 22, 1953, Mr. BASIL WILLIAM KACEDAN, Attorney, Room 525, 6 Beacon Street, Boston, voluntarily appeared at the Boston Office. He advised that his motive for calling was that he had applied for a position with the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service as a translator or examiner, and felt that during the course of an investigation it would be discovered that he was a member of the Massachusetts Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

The records of the Office of the Clerk, Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts, reflected that KACEDAN was naturalized in Springfield, Massachusetts on September 18, 1928. The records further indicated he was a Captain in the Russian Army during the First World War and during the revolution until 1930. Thereafter, he was employed as as an electrician in Constantinople, Turkey.

When KACEDAN appeared at the Boston Office, he claimed it was a matter of official record that he had opposed Communism for many years. He stated that since 1926 he had made approximately one hundred anti-Communist speeches before various church and society groups. His purpose for joining the Massachusetts Council of American-Soviet Friendship was to assist in the collection of money and clothing, and his motive was purely patriotic. He also stated that he was a member of the Russian American Democratic Club; a Russian club called "Knowledge" and the St. Platen Brotherhood, which was affiliated with the Russian Orthodox Church. All these organizations, KACEDAN stated, were anti-Communist in nature.

It was noted that in the information voluntarily furnished by KACEDAN that he never mentioned that he had any contact with the subject or any one else at the Soviet Consulate in New York City.

Records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, checked on August 24, 1953 failed to reflect any information regarding MARGUERITA KONENKOVA.

Regarding ANNA GEORGIEVNA THORP, T-4, of known reliability, furnished information from July 1947 to March 1948 which reflected that she was probably a guiding force in that segment of the Russian Orthodox Church in New York City which was under the domination of the Moscow Patriarch.

T-5, of known reliability, provided the information that KUSMAN first arrived in the United States in April 1929 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania as a seaman. After his arrival he sailed on American merchant ships until February 1937 when he left for Spain aboard the SS PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT. He returned to the United States on September 12, 1938 as a stowaway from Le Havre, France. On September 16, 1938 a Board of Special Inquiry of the Immigration and Naturalization Service ordered KUSMAN deported. In December 1938, he was released from custody of the Immigration authorities on $1,000 bond. On January 23, 1939, a bill was introduced in the House of Representatives to cancel KUSMAN's warrant of arrest and order of deportation against him. The bill further provided that he be deemed lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence. KUSMAN subsequently re-entered the United States on August 18, 1939 from Cuba as a legal alien.

T-6, of known reliability, provided information which reflected that KUSMAN filed his first citizenship papers in the United States District Court on June 14, 1940, Petition Number 464870. The informant also advised that KUSMAN stated he had been a Captain in the Spanish Army in 1936 to 1938.

FELIX KUSMAN advised during the course of an interview on December 3, 1952 by SAs EDWARD W. BUCKLEY and JAMES N. JULIANO that in 1939 he became active in the VLB in New York City and became chief fund raiser for the Spanish Rescue Ship, an organization attempting to aid Spanish refugees coming to the United States. This organization later became known as the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee- Spanish Refugee Appeal.

At the time of the interview KUSMAN stated that he ceased being active in the JAFRC about five years previous. He admitted during the course of the interview that he was formerly a fund raiser for the JAFRC.

T-9, of known reliability, [REDACTED]

In the book, "Men Without Faces", LOUIS F. BUDENZ made the following reference to KUSMAN:

"The Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee was the center from which he operated and FELIX KUSMAN of that organization was one of (the)-----chief couriers."

T-10, of known reliability, advised [REDACTED] b7D

During the interview on December 3, 1952, KUSMAN stated that when he left the JAFRC as a fund raiser, he was asked to be in charge of fund raising for the Civil Rights Congress in New York City. He claimed to have only held this position for about a month.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, reflected that KUSMAN was released on $25,000. bail on January 14, 1954 from incarceration at Ellis Island, New York, where he was awaiting deportation. KUSMAN is required to report to Immigration and Naturalization authorities weekly.

The VALB, JAFRC and Civil Rights Congress have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

 (S) DEAR 3/21/1911 Ross. b1
It is possible that this individual is identical to SAM SCHNEIDER, Musician, residing at 348 East 19th Street, New York City. Cx.

In connection with another matter, CHARLOTTE ROSALIE SCHNEIDER, nee SLAPO, furnished information that she was married to SAM SCHNEIDER on June 7, 1953 at New York. He was born in Russia on March 31, 1914, and was a musician by occupation.

The records of the Board of Elections, City of New York, reflected that SAM SCHNEIDER registered in favor of the Communist Party in 1936; and in the years 1937 to 1941, and 1946 to 1952, he registered in favor of the American Labor Party.

T-12, of known reliability, advised on March 7, 1951 that Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians - AFL, located at 1267 6th Avenue, New York City, contained a group which he believed to be composed of either Communists or Communist sympathizers, for the reason that this group's advocacy of the Communist Party line had dated as far back as the SCOTTSBORO case, after which they were anti-war and anti-ROOSEVELT during the HITLER-STALIN Pact; then they advocated a second front and always supported the candidacy of VITO MARCANTONIO and protested the trial of the Communist Party leaders. The informant added that SAM SCHNEIDER was one of those he believed to be a member of this group.

In May 1951, T-12 mentioned that on April 27, 1951, a contract had been signed with Local 802 of the Musicians Union calling for several bands. Another contract of the same nature had been signed on April 30, 1951. These contracts, according to T-12, were signed on behalf of the United May Day Committee by LOUIS WEINSTOCK and on behalf of the Musicians Union, Local 802 by SAM SCHNEIDER. According the informant, it was apparent that SCHNEIDER was the member of the union who the United May Day Parade Committee approached for their needs in respect to bands. There was no question in the informant's mind but that SAM SCHNEIDER was a Communist or a Communist sympathizer because among other things he also had been distributing copies of the "Daily Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper.

In December 1953, T-12 stated that he knew nothing of SAM SCHNEIDER's outside activities or family background but that in his estimation, SCHNEIDER was a "red hot Communist" and would not trust him.

T-13, of known reliability, advised in December 1953 that he was acquainted with SAM SCHNEIDER through various union activities and described him as an extremely quiet individual who constituted one of the stronger memberships of Local 802. T-13 stated that he definitely believed SCHNEIDER to be pro-Communist and one who "must be watched."

Information is also set out that SAM SCHNEIDER was affiliated with Local 802 of the American Federation of Musicians - AFL, located at NYC. (u)

In the NY report of SA PHILIP E. KUHLMAN, dated 12/31/53, in the case entitled, "CHARLOTTE ROSALIE SCHNEIDER, nee SLAPO, aka, Social Worker (Student), Veterans Administration Hospital, Veterans Administration, Brooklyn, NY; SGE," NY file 140-997, Bureau file 140-1846, information concerning SAM SCHNEIDER, husband of CHARLOTTE, is set forth beginning on page 12. Part of this information reflects that her husband, SAM SCHNEIDER, was a member of the Musician's Union, Local 802, and was further described as a saxophone player. According to an informant of known reliability, SAM SCHNEIDER was a member of Local 802, of whom the United May Day Parade Committee approached for their needs with respect to a band.

Regarding the address 348 E. 19th St., NYC, previously mentioned, it is indicated on the Standard Form 85, dated 10/5/53, furnished by CHARLOTTE ROSALIE SCHNEIDER that her address from the United States since 1922. He stated he was naturalized at the U. S. District Court at Boston, Massachusetts. KACEDAN further stated he was formerly a Captain in the White Russian Army prior to his coming to the U.S. He also stated that he fought the Bolsheviks in Russia during his period of service with the White Russian Army. KACEDAN stated he has always been against Communism and has made numerous speeches since he has been in the U. S. against the evils of Communism.

KACEDAN stated he was active with the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston during the years 1941-1946. KACEDAN explained that the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston encompassed numerous Russian, Ukrainian and Jewish organizations which were, in his opinion, not in any way favorable to the Communist political doctrines. He stated these United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston were primarily interested in aiding the victims in eastern Europe and especially those in western Russia, whose areas were devastated by the Nazi Germany armies.

KACEDAN stated he has many persons among the Russian, Ukrainian and Jewish population groups in the Greater Boston area as his clients, and that many of them in the past have engaged him as an attorney to contact the Soviet Consulate for the purpose of handling some of their estates, as well as obtaining information from the Consulate as to the whereabouts of their relatives; as well as seeking information for some clients as to whether their relatives still were residing in Russia or countries now considered behind the "Iron Curtain."

With reference to one client, KACEDAN recalled that he was hired to represent a Russian person in Boston to try to obtain a visa for him so that he could visit his relatives in Russia. KACEDAN stated that sometime during 1945 or 1946 he visited the Russian Consulate for this client to obtain the visa, but the Soviet Consulate refused to grant his client a visa.

On another occasion, KACEDAN recalled telephonically contacting the Soviet Consulate, New York City, during 1943 or 1944, for another client, who desired to seek information about his relatives in Russia.

KACEDAN also remembered that he visited the Soviet Consulate in New York City during September or October 1945 for a client in Boston who was desirous of seeking information from the Soviet Consulate about his wife who was in Latvia at that time. KACEDAN recalled that the Soviet Consulate was unable to do anything to furnish his client with any information regarding his client's wife in Latvia.

With reference to the aforementioned United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston, KACEDAN stated these organizations supported the Russian War Relief for the purpose of helping the victims in eastern Europe, and especially western Russia. He stated that these organizations contributed money for the purpose of purchasing clothes, foods and medicine to be sent to these victims in those areas which were devastated by the Nazi armies. KACEDAN stated that he was cognizant that later the Russian War Relief was considered by many agencies as a Communist front movement in the United States. Nevertheless, KACEDAN stated that during the war years the primary purpose of the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston was to give aid to the victims of eastern Europe.

KACEDAN recalled that the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston directed a letter to the Consulate General of the U.S.S.R., 7 East 61st Street, New York City, dated August 12, 1942, informing the Consulate General that they would like to arrange a mass meeting in Boston sometime in September or October 1942 for the purpose of collecting funds for the Russian War Relief. KACEDAN stated that he personally wrote the letter because he represented the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston as its attorney. This letter requested the Consulate General to send a representative of the Soviet Government to attend the aforementioned meeting for the purpose of saying a few words either in Russian or English about the devastation that the Nazi armies caused in eastern Europe and especially in western Russia. KACEDAN stated that it was the opinion of the committee of the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston that the presence of a Soviet representative at the meeting would greatly contribute to it.

At this point, KACEDAN pointed out that the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston were not interested in any Communist political ideology but, instead, were greatly concerned about helping the victims in eastern Europe and especially western Russia.

KACEDAN stated that the U.S.S.R. Consulate telephonically contacted him during August 1942 and advised him that someone would come to Boston to speak about the hardships being endured by the victims of eastern Europe. KACEDAN recalled that the Consulate's Office did not specifically name a representative at that time, but assured him someone from the Consulate would be in Boston to make the speech. KACEDAN stated that this representative of the Consulate did appear in Boston at the meeting held during September or October 1942, but he was unable to recall the name of the Soviet representative.

KACEDAN stated that the Soviet representative's speech was non-political but, instead, the speaker explained how the Nazis penetrated and devastated eastern Europe and western Russia.

KACEDAN recalled that during November 1945 a public meeting, which was attended by several hundred people, was held either in the Hotel Bradford or some other place in Boston by the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston for the purpose of collecting funds for purchasing foods, clothes and medicines (especially penicillin) to be sent to the victims of eastern Europe and western Russia.

KACEDAN recalled that the committee of the United Russian and Ukrainian Organizations of Greater Boston had requested another speaker from the Consulate by letter and that the committee requested the Consulate's Office to contact KACEDAN because someone on the committee was of the opinion that KACEDAN was the best person for the Consulate to call inasmuch as KACEDAN was an attorney for the committee and had a law office in Boston.

KACEDAN stated that during November 1945 he did recall a telephone call from the Soviet Consulate in New York City regarding the request made by the committee for a speaker. The Soviet Consulate advised KACEDAN by telephone that no speaker was available at that time and if there should be one available they would call up immediately by telephone.

KACEDAN recalled that a speaker did arrive at the meeting held in Boston during November 1945 for the purpose of raising funds to purchase foods, clothes and medicines for the victims in eastern Europe and western Russia. KACEDAN stated he was unable to recall the name of the speaker who came to Boston during November 1945 from the Soviet Consulate except that this speaker again reiterated the horrible devastation that the Nazi armies had caused in eastern Europe and western Russia and that the needs of the victims in these areas were very great at that time.

KACEDAN stated he was unable to recall ever meeting any of the officials of the Soviet Consulate either in New York City or Boston, Massachusetts.

KACEDAN also stated that the activities of the Russian War Relief in Boston expired about 1945 or 1946.

In the Fourth Report on Un-American Activities in California in 1948, on Communist Front Organizations, page 169 reads as follows:

"Throughout the life of the Communist movement in the United States, the Communist Party has maintained front organizations and conducted enterprises for the sole purpose of carrying on propaganda on behalf of the Soviet Union. Some of the more important of these fronts and enterprises has been the Russian War Relief."

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

For the information of the Bureau, BASIL WILLIAM KACEDAN is the subject of closed BS file 100-17987. KACEDAN, as Secretary of the United Russian-Ukrainian Committee of Greater Boston, introduced MICHAEL TRACH, National Secretary of the Ukrainian Section of the American-Slav Congress and the Ukrainian Workers Society, IWO, at a meeting of the American-Slav Congress held in Boston on 5/11/47. KACEDAN stated at this meeting he had been a delegate to the American-Slav Congress held in New York City in 1946 and called for support of the policies as laid down by the late President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, exemplifying the unity of American-Slavs (report of SA LOUIS H. BEIGBELER, 5/27/47, Boston, entitled "BASIL KACEDAN, W.A.S.; IS - R.").

On 5/22/53, KACEDAN appeared at the Boston Office and stated his motive in calling was that he had applied for a position with the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Boston, as a translator or examiner, and he felt that during the course of any investigation it would be discovered he was formerly a member of the Massachusetts Council of American-Soviet Friendship. He, therefore, desired to have it made a matter of official record that he has been battling Communism for many years and was against the Communist ideology. He also stated he had made about 100 anti-Communist speeches to various churches and societies in the Greater Boston area since 1926. KACEDAN stated many of his anti-Communist speeches appeared in the local newspapers, especially in Springfield, Mass., during the years 1926-1927.

KACEDAN stated he joined the Massachusetts Council of American Soviet Friendship around 1944-1945, and that his purpose in doing so was to assist the Russian people by collecting money and clothing to be sent to them because of the Nazi army's invasion of western Russia during World War II. He stated the money was collected for the purpose of purchasing medicines to be sent to western Russia.

KACEDAN stated to the writer he will still continue to combat Communism. He stated he believed firmly in the principles of democracy as practiced in the U. S. and stated he would be available at any time to cooperate with the FBI on any matters in which the FBI felt he could be of assistance.

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent Walter A. Vangenheim dated October 6, 1954, at New York in the case entitled "Anatoli Antonovich Yakovlev, Fugitive, Espionage - R," New York file 100-81002, Bureau file 100-346193.

Referenced report contained considerable information regarding the captioned individual.

In addition rerep revealed that the subject registered as a Communist in 1936 and apparently is currently active in Communist Party activities in the New York City area. A review of Bureau files fails to reveal that this individual has been the subject of a security matter investigation; however, this review revealed a loyalty investigation on an individual by the same name as the captioned subject which contained some of the same derogatory information attributed to the Sam Schneider listed in rerep. In this connection your attention is directed to a report of Special Agent Alfred W. Goff dated May 24, 1954, at New York in the case entitled "Samuel Schneider, Substitute Clerk - Carrier, Applicant, Post Office Department, New York, New York, Security of Government Employees," New York file 121-16919, Bureau file 121-43581. It is noted that the birth date and marriage date concerning the Sam Schneider mentioned in rerep does not coincide with the Sam Schneider who is the subject of the security of Government employees investigation; however, it was noted that similar information was listed for both Schneiders namely registration with the Communist Party in 1936 and registration with the American Labor Party from 1937 to 1941. It was further noted that both Schneiders are listed as musicians; however, the security of Government employees investigation failed to list a musicians union.

Enclosed herewith is the original and five copies of report of SA WALTER A. WANGENHEIM, NY, 3/23/55. (u)

The interview of MAURICE SCHWARTZ was conducted according to existing Bureau regulations concerning interviews of subjects in security cases. SCHWARTZ was approached at the National Theatre, NYC, following a rehearsal of a play in which he is featured. Because of the circumstances the interview of this individual was of necessity limited. (u)

In re-evaluating the information furnished by [redacted] regarding one SCHWARTZ, it is feasible that MAURICE SCHWARTZ, the actor, is not identical with the individual mentioned by [redacted]. (S)

The indices of the NYO will be searched for other possibilities in this regard. b1

MAURICE SCHWARTZ expressed a desire to be fully cooperative with the FBI but insisted that he had no contact with individuals at the Soviet Consulate, NYC. It does not appear, therefore, that further interviews with him would be productive. UACB SCHWARTZ will not be reinterviewed regarding the subject. (u) (S)

In answer to the question Mr. SCHWARTZ stated subject's name was familiar to him but he denied ever having associated with the subject or any other Soviet official. When shown a photograph of YAKOVLEV, SCHWARTZ again thought it was a familiar face but he could not place it.

In regard to the role he played in the motion picture "Mission to Moscow," SCHWARTZ stated that when the picture was in production he was appearing in a play in Hollywood. His agent had obtained a part for him in the motion picture for which he received approximately $5,000 for about two days' work. He explained that the role he had was that of a doctor and it was only a brief scene. SCHWARTZ recalled that there were many celebrities in the picture and also added that he was certainly well paid for the little he was required to do. SCHWARTZ stated that he never received any particular recognition for his part in the picture either from the Soviets or anyone else.

MAURICE SCHWARTZ insisted that he has always been anti-Communist and claimed that in 1924 while he was in London with the Yiddish Art Group, he was asked to consider using the group through which to express certain political ideas. He could not recall the name of the individual in the group who attempted to talk him into this idea but he was certain that the individual was a Communist. At this time SCHWARTZ advised he made it known that the Yiddish Art Group belonged to all the people regardless of nationality and it was to be completely devoted to drama as such.

SCHWARTZ alleged that because of his anti-Communist attitude through the years his greatest enemy has been the "Morning Freiheit," Yiddish newspaper. This publication has taken every available opportunity to criticize the plays he has produced and taken part in and to ridicule his performances. He mentioned that the play he is presently starring in received excellent reviews in all the New York newspapers with the exception of the "Morning Freiheit." This paper severely criticized the play. SCHWARTZ stated they probably resented the fact that there was a line in the play that referred to the Russians as "stupid." He recalled that he previously did the same play in California and was requested to delete the same line but refused to do so.

In response to the question, SCHWARTZ insisted he avoided any situation that placed him in the category of a supporter of the Soviet cause during the war years. He denied ever visiting the Soviet Consulate in New York City or participating in any function as a sponsor or guest of any pro-Communist or pro-Soviet organization. He insisted that any information which linked him with the subject was erroneous. He also stated that any evidence to support the claims that he was friendly with the Soviets was wrong. SCHWARTZ also stated that there was no reason why he should conceal any past association with Soviet officials in view of the fact that in those years they were our Allies, but he was certain that he was never friendly with the subject.

Concerning the "Morning Freiheit," the following information is contained in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., dated May 14, 1951:

"1. A 'Communist Yiddish daily.' (Attorney General Francis Biddle, Congressional Record, September 24, 1942, p. 7686.)

"2. 'The Freiheit has been one of the rankest organs of Communist propaganda in this country for almost a quarter of a century.' (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 75.)

"3. 'The official Communist newspaper published in the Yiddish tongue. For many years, M. J. Olgin was editor of Freiheit. Olgin was one of the outstanding leaders of the Communist Party in the United States for 20 years.' (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948, p. 242.)

"4. 'One of the daily papers published by the Communist Party.' (Massachusetts House Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1938, p. 331.)"

T-1 advised that [REDACTED]

T-1 stated that [REDACTED]

According to T-1, [REDACTED]

Mr. & Mrs. SEYMOUR ROSENTHAL, 161-08 Jewel Avenue, Flushing, New York, was interviewed on January 25, 1954, by SAS WILLIAM R. KLEIN and ROBERT L. SANDERS. He advised that he was born on August 14, 1921, in New York City. His parents were ISADORE ROSENTHAL and DORA ROSENTHAL. His wife's name was FRANCES ROSENTHAL nee FRIEDLANDER. He was employed, at the time of the interview, since 1948 with OSMOND B. JOHNSON, Incorporated, Printing Company, 601 West 26th Street, New York City. N.Y. RUSSIA b1 (S)

ROSENTHAL advised that his wife's parents, DAVID and LILLIAN FRIEDLANDER, were born in Russia. They came to the United States in the early 1900's and left a large number of relatives in Russia with whom they corresponded. According to ROSENTHAL, his in-laws became concerned about their relatives during World War II. He suggested to them that they contact the Russian Consulate in New York to determine their whereabouts. FRIEDLANDER

Since his in-laws were old and spoke poor English, SEYMOUR and his wife agreed to contact the Consulate for them. Sometime during the summer of 1944 the ROSENTHALS went to the Consulate and met YAKOVLEV who was an official there. YAKOVLEV gave them considerable encouragement and felt he might be able to get some information regarding the relatives' whereabouts. YAKOVLEV gave them an application on which they furnished all the information they could regarding the relatives.

ROSENTHAL's in-laws became very enthusiastic about locating their relatives and suggested to ROSENTHAL that he invite the subject to dinner.

The subject accepted the invitation and he and one PANITCHEV came to the FRIEDLANDER's residence. ROSENTHAL identified a photograph of YAKOVLEV and described him as a very "charming and entertaining person." Following the dinner YAKOVLEV played the piano and PANITCHEV, who spoke no English, danced.

NY 100-81002

ROSENTHAL recalled meeting the subject on only three occasions, namely, on his initial visit to the Consulate, on YAKOVLEV's visit to the FRIEDLANDER's home, and about one and a half years following his initial visit to the Consulate, he and his wife made a second visit to the Consulate. The purpose of the second visit was to again inquire about his in-laws' relatives. On the last visit the subject informed them that he had been unsuccessful in obtaining any information.

ROSENTHAL stated that YAKOVLEV never asked for any information, nor was he furnished any, relative to the United States. ROSENTHAL had no acquaintance with any of the individuals in the ROSENBERG case but recalled reading in the newspapers that YAKOVLEV was involved in it.

In the course of the interview, ROSENTHAL admitted that approximately once a month between 1946 and 1948, he contributed drawings to the "Daily Worker", (an East coast Communist newspaper). He was paid about five dollars for each drawing. He had hoped the experience would lead to a commercial drawing job for a magazine. He claimed that, with the "increased international situation" between Russia and the United States, he no longer wanted to be associated with a Communist newspaper and stopped furnishing sketches. He denied ever being a member of the Communist Party (CP).

The records of the Bureau of Special Services and Investigations, New York City Police Department, as reviewed by SA AUGUST J. MICEK, revealed that REVA SEGALL witnessed CP nominating petitions in 1939 and 1945. These records further revealed that one REVA DOROTHY SEGALL signed a CP nominating petition in 1940 and 1941.

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised [REDACTED] b1

T-4, another government agency which conducts security investigations, advised that as of May 12, 1952, REVA D. SEGALL, 300 West 12th Street, New York City was employed by Alfred Hopkins and Associates, 415 Lexington Avenue, New York City, as a draftsman.

On November 24, 1954, REVA SEGALL was contacted by SAS WILLIAM J. WINCHESTER and FRANK C. KEMER but she was uncooperative and refused to speak to the agents.

MARK JULIUS GAYN

T-1 advised that [REDACTED] b1

MARK JULIUS GAYN was interviewed at the New York Office on April 30, 1953, by SAS JAMES N. JULIANA and CHESTER A. REILLY. GAYN advised that he was born in Manchuria and then resided in China and Russia. In 1929 he attended Pomona College in California and later, from 1933 to 1934, attended the Columbia School of Journalism in New York City. In 1934, he was sent to China as a newspaper correspondent where he remained for several years. In 1944 he was employed by the "Chicago Sun" and this newspaper wanted to send him to Moscow as a correspondent. After waiting for about a year for a visa, he was denied it in the fall of 1945. Instead he was sent to Japan as a Bureau Chief where he remained until December, 1946.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
GAYN, following the war, travelled throughout Asia and Europe, representing various publications. He claimed he was able to move freely in countries behind the "iron curtain" because of the fact that he was an "expert newspaperman".

GAYN also mentioned that he used the pen name THOMAS BALLARD and under this name wrote numerous anti-Communist articles.

GAYN stated that he never was a member of the CP, nor did he ever associate with Communists other than through interviews conducted in the course of his trade as a newspaperman.

Maria Donskoy

T-1 stated that

The indices of the New York Office failed to reflect any information regarding LILIA DONSKAIA. (u)

In view of the past activities of the captioned individual, information concerning her is set forth as possibly identical to the individual mentioned by T-1. (u)

MARIA WICHER was interviewed by SA's C. DALLAS MOBLEY and RICHARD A. MINIHAN at her residence, 1324 Clairmont Circle, Decatur, Georgia, on January 22 and 23, 1952. (u)

MARIA WICHER is the mother of FLORA DONSKAIA NOVSCHIN who, in 1946, married NIKOLAI KARPEKOV, a Soviet National who at the time was an employee of the Amtorg Trading Corporation and a student at Columbia University, New York City. (u) R

The records of INS, New York City, reflect that on July 20, 1946, KARPEKOV and his wife, FLORA, departed from New York City for the Soviet Union aboard the "SS Pobeda." (u)

In the course of the interview MARIA WICHER stated that during World War II she was active in Russian War Relief in New York City and associated with many Soviet Nationals. She acted as Executive Secretary for the West Side Branch of Russian War Relief. (u)

On February 28, 1942, BENJAMIN MANDEL, Director of Research, Committee on Un-American Activities, Room 226, Old House Building, Washington, D.C., advised that the Russian War

NY 100-81002

Relief was a Communist controlled front organization. Mr. MANDEL also advised that the Russian War Relief was started at a rally held on July 2, 1941, in New York City, which rally was sponsored by the American Council on Soviet Relations. The latter organization became the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship and has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (u)

The records of the County Clerk, New York City, reflect that MARIA S. WOVSCHIN married E. R. WICHER on February 1, 1943. She was shown as a widow as of April 15, 1938, the date of the death of her first husband, Dr. WILLIAM A. WOVSCHIN. Her maiden name was DONSKOY. (u)

Mrs. K. S. DOTY, Assistant Dean of Barnard College, New York City, advised on September 24, 1945, that MARIA DONSKOYA

The "Daily Worker," an east coast Communist newspaper, of February 9, 1954, contained an article on page eight announcing a conference that was called the Washington Heights and Inwood Conference. This conference was to be held at the Washington Heights Health Department auditorium, New York City. The article mentioned that the purpose of this conference was to discuss the problems of housing violations, rent control, overcrowding, and community relations. The article stated the conference was called by "prominent community figures," which included one Reverend ELISHA H. SIMONIAN of the Holy Cross Church of Armenia.

It is not known if this individual mentioned in the "Daily Worker" is identical to the individual who contacted the subject.

MARIA DIKAREVA SCOTT

T-1 advised that [REDACTED] b1

On April 10, 1953, MARIA DIKAREVA SCOTT was interviewed at her residence, Standpipe Road, Ridgefield, Connecticut, by SA's FRANCIS X. MC BRIDE and HUGO P. BLANDORI. At that time she stated she was known to her friends as "MASHA" SCOTT. She was born on December 21, 1911, in Russia, and renounced her Soviet Citizenship in 1941. She remained stateless until she obtained her United States citizenship in 1945 at the United States District Court in New York City. She claimed to have entered the United States, not with a Soviet passport, but on an United States Immigration Visa issued by the American Consulate in Moscow.

Mrs. SCOTT stated that she married JOHN SCOTT in May or June, 1934, in Russia, and this marriage was registered with the American Consulate in Moscow on August 21, 1934. Mrs. J. M. S. Ger

She denied ever being a member of the Communist Party in Russia or in the United States, but did admit being a member of the Komsomol while in Russia. The Komsomol was described as being similar to the Young Communist League in the United States.

The Young Communist League has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NY 100-81002

Mrs. SCOTT stated she had contact with the NKVD while in Russia when she sought permission to leave the Soviet Union to accompany her husband to the United States. She stated it required almost four years to obtain permission from the NKVD because they tried to dissuade her from making such a move, and imposed all sorts of obstacles upon her. She added that they never solicited her services.

During World War II, Mrs. SCOTT was active on behalf of the Russian War Relief and gave speeches throughout the East. She stated that she had been selected because she was an American citizen, wife of a writer, and one who was born in and knew the Soviet Union.

Mrs. SCOTT claimed that the only other organization she was active in was the East - West Association. She stated the purpose of this organization was to promote relations between the Far East and the United States, and for this purpose published a magazine called "Asia." She added the organization was no longer in existence.

JOHN SCOTT is the author of the book entitled "Behind the Urals," and was correspondent for "Time," and "Life" magazines in Russia and Germany.

In January 1951, the records of INS, Washington, D.C., reflected that MARIA TAMARKINA, 17 Chittenden Avenue, New York City, was born on August 15, 1916, in Toropitz, Russia. She entered the United States at New York City from Havana, Cuba, on July 1, 1941. She was married to one FRED BORDES in New York City on October 25, 1941. She was also known as MARIA BORDI and MARIA BORDES. (u) France Austria

On June 10, 1948, MARIA BORDI was issued a re-entry permit, number 1503641. She proposed to depart from New York City on a four or five month visit to Paris, France, and Moscow, Russia. It was stated that the purpose of this trip was to visit a sister in Moscow, and that she was on assignment to Paris by the Secretariat of the UN to cover the UN General Assembly in her official capacity as a photographer. (u)

On May 20, 1952, MARIA BORDI was interviewed by SA's REX SHRODER and PHILLIP J. CROAK. At that time she stated she resided in the Soviet Union until 1933. Then she and members of her family went to Vienna, Austria, and lived there until 1938. At the outbreak of the war they moved to Paris, France, and stayed there until 1941 when they secured passage to Havana, Cuba, and finally came to the United States. She took out her first citizenship papers in 1941. (u)

MARIA BORDI stated that in 1946 she obtained a position as Official Photographer for the UN Secretariat. She claimed that she was able to secure this appointment because of her status as a Russian citizen. She explained that UN employment is on a quota basis. She also gave this as a reason for not obtaining United States citizenship. She felt she would lose her job at the UN. (u) Fred Bordes

NY ROWENA MEYER, 214 East 25th Street, New York City, was interviewed on March 10, 1953, at her residence by SAS CHARLES N. MOCK and WALTER J. BURNS. During the course of the interview she advised that she was born on November 17, 1908, in Brooklyn, New York, and moved to Canada with her parents while still a minor child. In 1934 she obtained a Canadian passport and departed for the USSR. She resided in the Soviet Union for about eight and one-half years. During that time she taught English in Moscow and was employed by the All Union Radio in Eastern Russia. During her residence in Russia she became a Soviet citizen. (u) RUSSIA

She was allowed to leave the Soviet Union in 1943 and re-entered the United States as a stateless person. In 1943 ROWENA MEYER petitioned for United States citizenship and at the time of the interview no action had yet been taken on her petition. (u)

After returning from the Soviet Union she was employed by Russian War Relief as a lecturer and toured various Eastern cities. She added that among other places that she "may have lectured" was the Jefferson School of Social Science in New York City. (u)

From 1946 until "sometime" in 1947 she was employed by the National Maritime Union. During the same period she also applied for a position as an English teacher with the Amtorg Trading Corporation but was refused because of the lack of a New York State Teachers Certificate. At the time of the interview ROWENA MEYER was employed as a secretary for a medical doctor. (u)

The "Daily Worker" issue (an East Coast Communist newspaper) of May 20, 1946, contained a photograph of MILTON ROBERTSON and a resume of an interview with him. He was described as a veteran of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and reportedly stated that the first professional writing he ever did was for the "Daily Worker." This article described various writings of ROBERTSON such as "Meet the Russians," "Hitler Meet Abraham Lincoln," and "Pulpit in a Fox Hole." The article also mentioned that ROBERTSON was to do a series of shows for the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. (u)

On March 10, 1954, Mrs. CHARLOTTE JOHNSON ROBERTSON Laurel Hollow, New York, was interviewed by SAS LEO H. FRUTKIN and FRANK R. LONGO. During the course of the interview she admitted being a member of the Communist Party from 1938 until approximately 1946. In the Spring of 1938, Mrs. JOHNSON married MILTON ROBERTSON SCHWARTZBERG in New York City, and after two weeks of married life, she separated from him and obtained an annulment in the Fall of 1938. Mrs. JOHNSON stated that MILTON ROBERTSON was sympathetic to the Communist Party but never admitted being a Communist Party member. Record reflected that GLIKMAN was born on August 16, 1919, in Komenez-Podolsky, Russia. His wife's name was DINA ~~GLIKMAN~~ nee ~~BERGMAN~~ and she was born in Moscow, Russia. They had one child, SAMUEL ~~GLIKMAN~~, born on January 21, 1947. According to this record, their destination in the United States was to be in care of his uncle, BENJAMIN ~~KOPMAN~~, 1129 Bayport Place, Far Rockaway, New York. Passage for the GLIKMAN family was to be paid by the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society. Their last foreign residence was Kaunas, Lithuania. (u)

N.Y.
LITHUANIA

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service at New York City reflected that DINA and VICTOR GLIKMAN arrived in the United States at New York on August 3, 1947. VICTOR GLIKMAN was listed as a physician. (u)

A check of the New York State Department of Education, Bureau of Professional Licensure, in 1951 reflected that VICTOR GLIKMAN originally applied for an evaluation of his foreign credentials on November 10, 1947. In his original application, GLIKMAN indicated that he received his medical degree in August, 1942, from the Turkmenian State Medical Institute, at Ashkhabad, Russia. He claimed to have left Russia because of the totalitarian form of government. He made his way to the American Zone of Germany and worked as a resident physician in a displaced persons camp near Munich, Germany. (u)

On January 13, 1951, Dr. GLIKMAN'S application for a license to practice medicine was denied by the New York State Board of Regents because of a policy of non-recognition of Russian medical education undertaken after 1927. (u)

This record reflected that as of December, 1950, GLIKMAN'S residence was 140 East 95th Street, New York City. (u)

T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in February, 1950, a B. KASPIAN of 11-29 Bayport Place, Far Rockaway, New York, was a subscriber to the "Daily Worker." (u)

PAUL WINKLER,

According to T-1,  NY

The indices of the New York Office failed to reflect any pertinent information regarding HILDA HOLLAND. (u) b1

The Press Alliance, Inc. filed registration statement number 405 with the United States Secretary of State under the Mc Cormick Act on February 7, 1940. Their foreign principal was Opera Mundi, a French newspaper agency. The business of the agency was the syndication of news articles dealing in literature and artistic beauty. It represented journalists, illustrators and writers. (u)

The registration statement reflected that PAUL WINKLER was president and treasurer of the agency.

On April 10, 1943, the agency was notified by the Department of Justice that it no longer needed to file a supplemental statement since the agency was inactive. (u)

An article appeared in the New York "World Telegram" daily newspaper on July 30, 1945, referring to the treason trial of MARSHAL HENRI PHILIPPE PETAINE of France. It was stated in the article that the Defense Attorney, JEAN LEMAIRE, asserted that the news service, Opera Mundi, of which PAUL WINKLER was Director, was used by the Germans in 1936 - 1937 to distribute propaganda in the United States. According to the article, WINKLER subsequently denied these charges. (u)

In 1942, the records of Immigration and Naturalization Service in New York reflected that PAUL WINKLER filed application for a non-immigrant visa on September 23, 1940. He was a citizen of France and possessed a French passport issued on August 31, 1940, which was valid until September, 1941. According to this record, WINKLER was born on July 7, 1898, at Budapest, Hungary. His occupation was given as a magazine publisher and the purpose of his coming to the United States was to be a manager of a press syndicate business. He intended to remain in the United States for six months. (u)

In October, 1941, WINKLER obtained an extension of his passport until October, 1943. At that time he furnished his business address as 235 East 45th Street, New York City. He also indicated that he and his wife were the officers of the Press Alliance at that address. (u)

Attached herewith are five copies of the report of SA WALTER A. WANGENHEIM, dated 1/31/56 at New York. (u)

A review of the captioned case reflects that a considerable number of the contacts of the subject remain to be identified. A further review of the nature of these contacts as revealed reflects that for the most part they indicate no unusual activity and appear to be routine, in keeping with the subject's official capacity at the Soviet Consulate, New York City. b1

The contacts remaining are mostly those that occurred in only one instance and the foreign names involved and the nature of the contact offer little or no information by which to make a positive identification. (u)

The interviews of individuals who were identified as contacts of the subject have not been productive in that they have not brought forth any pertinent information regarding the subject's activities while he was in the United States. (u)

It is believed that the investigative time necessary to identify these remaining contacts would not prove fruitful. (u)

UACB, this case will be placed in a pending inactive status at the NYO for the purpose of checking the docket in the Office of the United States District Court Clerk, Southern District of New York, to ascertain annually whether the fugitive process against the subject remains outstanding.

re: Anatoli Yakovlev*

Dan Clare of the Department of State called on 4/26/56 and advised that he had received an inquiry from one McManus of the staff of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee regarding the captioned subject. McManus had asked Clare for biographical data and information regarding Yakovlev's activities in the United States. Clare stated that he informed McManus that he was unable to furnish him with any information since all of the pertinent data was included in FBI reports.

Yakovlev was an MGB agent who was assigned here as a Soviet diplomat. He was involved in the Harry Gold espionage case and was identified as Gold's last Soviet principal. Yakovlev left the United States in December, 1946. He was indicted on a charge of espionage and a warrant is still outstanding. (100-346193)

ACTION:

None. For information. This inquiry has been brought to the attention of Mr. Nichols' office and the Espionage Section.
